1. Types of tax

1.1 Inheritance tax

The Japanese Inheritance Tax Law (sozoku zei ho) covers inheritance tax (souzoku zei) and gift tax (zoyo zei). Inheritance tax is imposed on an individual who acquires property by inheritance or bequest upon the death of the decedent. Gift tax is imposed on an individual who acquires properties by gift (or economic benefit by deemed gift). Gift tax is a tax supplementary to inheritance tax. Both taxes are national taxes and no local tax is assessed on the transfer of property due to death or a gift.

Computation of inheritance tax

The individual heirs are taxed, but not the estate. Inheritance tax is imposed on the aggregate value of all properties acquired by inheritance or bequest. Inheritance tax is calculated separately for each statutory heir and legatee, regardless of how and to whom the property is to be distributed. Then, the total amount of tax calculated is allocated between those who will actually receive the decedent's properties in accordance with his or her will or by agreement of the heirs by portion. The tax is calculated based on the statutory heirs and legatees, whereas the tax liability is attributed to those who actually acquire the properties.

Computation

The calculation is based on the following steps:

- ▶ Aggregate the amount of taxable properties acquired by all heirs and legatees (net of the liabilities succeeded).
- ▶ Deduct the basic exemption of ¥50 million (¥30 million for inheritances on or after 1 January 2015) plus ¥10 million (¥6 million for inheritances on or after 1 January 2015) multiplied by the number of statutory heirs from the above "aggregated taxable estate value."
- ▶ Allocate the aggregated taxable estate value to each statutory heir according to their statutory share.
- ▶ Calculate the inheritance tax separately for each statutory heir's portion allocated above, by the application of the following progressive tax rates (the tax rates will be increased for inheritances on or after 1 January 2015):

Until 31 December 2014		From 1 January 2015
Up to ¥10 million	10%	Up to ¥10 million	10%
Above ¥10 million up to ¥30 million	15%	Above ¥10 million up to ¥30 million	15%
Above ¥30 million up to ¥50 million	20%	Above ¥30 million up to ¥50 million	20%
Above ¥50 million up to ¥100 million	30%	Above ¥50 million up to ¥100 million	30%
Above ¥100 million up to ¥300 million	40%	Above ¥100 million up to ¥200 million	40%
		Above ¥200 million up to ¥300 million	45%
Above ¥300 million	50%	Above ¥300 million up to ¥600 million	50%

- ▶ Aggregate the inheritance tax calculated above, "aggregated inheritance tax."
- ▶ Allocate the aggregated inheritance tax to each of the heirs and legatees based on the ratio of the value of the taxable properties actually acquired by him or her against the aggregated taxable estate value.
- ▶ A 20% surtax is imposed on heirs or legatees of anyone who is not the decedent's spouse, the decedent's parents and the decedent's children. Where the decedent's grandchild became the decedent's adopted child, he or she is also subject to a 20% surtax.
- ▶ Deduct applicable tax credits to each heir (see Section 4).

The property acquired by a gift from the deceased within three years of the death of the deceased is regarded as estate property. Any gift tax imposed on the acquisition of such property is creditable against the inheritance tax liability.

Japan

Sample case where the heirs consist of spouse and two children:

1.2 Gift tax

Gift tax is imposed on individuals who acquire property by gift during the lifetime of the donee. Gift tax is also imposed on economic benefits received by deemed gift.

Computation of gift tax

The taxable base of gift tax is determined as the value of properties obtained by a gift (or by a deemed gift) during each calendar year, after an annual basic exemption of ¥1.1 million. The applicable tax rates are as follows (the tax rates will be increased for gifts on or after 1 January 2015):

Until 31 December 2014		From 1 January 2015
Not more than ¥2 million	10%	Not more than ¥2 million	10%
Above ¥2 million up to ¥3 million	15%	Above ¥2 million up to ¥3 million	15%
Above ¥3 million up to ¥4 million	20%	Above ¥3 million up to ¥4 million	20%
Above ¥4 million up to ¥6 million	30%	Above ¥4 million up to ¥6 million	30%
Above ¥6 million up to ¥10 million	40%	Above ¥6 million up to ¥10 million	40%
		Above ¥10 million up to ¥15 million	45%
Above ¥10 million	50%	Above ¥15 million up to ¥30 million	50%
		Above ¥30 million	55%

1.3 Real estate transfer tax

Registration and license tax

The registration of the transfer of ownership of real property by inheritance or bequest is subject to registration and license tax at the rate of 0.4% of assessed value of the land and building. The registration of the transfer of ownership by gift or sales is generally subject to registration and license tax at a standard rate of 2%. Temporarily, the rate for land and residential buildings is reduced until 31 March 2014.

Real estate acquisition tax

The acquisition of real property by gift or sales is generally subject to a real estate acquisition tax at 4%. Temporarily, the acquisition of land and a residential home until 31 March 2015 is subject to a real estate acquisition tax at 3%. However, the acquisition of real property by inheritance or bequest is exempt from real estate acquisition tax.

1.4 Endowment tax

There is no endowment tax in Japan. As described in Section 4, if the heir makes donations of property to certain specified nonprofit organizations or foundations of the Japanese government, a local public organization by the filing due date of the inheritance tax, the property is exempt from the inheritance tax.

1.5 Transfer duty

There is no transfer duty other than real estate transfer taxes (see Section 1.3).

1.6 Net wealth tax

There is no tax imposed on net wealth in Japan.

2. Who is liable?

2.1 Who is liable – unlimited liability

Nationality and domicile

The heir or the donee who is domiciled in Japan when acquiring property at the death of the deceased or by gift has unlimited liability for inheritance tax or gift tax, regardless of his or her nationality. In addition, in cases where the heir or the donee has Japanese nationality, but is not domiciled in Japan at the time of property acquisition, he or she will still be subject to unlimited liability if either the heir or the deceased or the donee or the donor has been domiciled in Japan any time within five years immediately before the time of death of the deceased or at the time of the gift (unlimited liability taxpayer with Japanese nationality). From 1 April 2013, in cases where the heir or the donee without Japanese nationality is not domiciled in Japan, he or she is also subject to unlimited liability if the deceased or the donor is domiciled in Japan at the death of the deceased or at the time of the gift.

Unlimited liability taxpayers are subject to inheritance tax or gift tax on all of the properties acquired regardless of whether the properties are located in or outside Japan.

Domicile

For the purposes of inheritance tax and gift tax, a “domicile” is defined as the principal base of living, which is determined based on facts and circumstances. The following individuals (as heirs or donees) will be treated as being domiciled in Japan, though they are actually located outside Japan:

- ▶ An individual who is studying abroad and is treated as a dependent of a Japanese resident for Japanese income tax purposes.
- ▶ An individual who is assigned to work or provide personal services outside Japan for a period of approximately one year or less.

2.2 Who is liable – limited liability

An individual who is not domiciled in Japan at the time of death of the deceased or at the time of a gift, excluding an unlimited liability taxpayer with Japanese nationality domiciled outside Japan, is categorized as a limited liability taxpayer. The limited liability taxpayer is subject to inheritance tax or gift tax only on the properties situated in Japan.

Whether the property is situated in Japan or not is determined based on the following location rules:

Kind of property	Location
Personal property	Place where the property is located
Real property	Place where the real property is situated
Ships or aircraft	Place where they are registered
Mining or quarry rights	Location of the mine or quarry
Fishing concession rights	Place where the coast is nearest to the fishing grounds
Deposits with a bank	Location of the office deposited
Insurance proceeds	Location of the head office or the principal office of the insurance company that issued the policy
Retirement allowances	Location of the head office or the principal office of the payer company
Loans	The domicile, the head office or the principal office of the debtor

Kind of property	Location
Shares in a company or bond and debentures issued by a company	Place where the issuing company has the head office or its principal office
Interests in collective investment trusts or taxable trusts	Location of the trustee's office
Patents, trademarks, etc.	Place where they are registered
Copyrights or publishing rights	Location of the publisher's office
Trade receivables, goodwill and other rights related to business operation	Place of business to which they are related
Japanese government bonds	Japan
Foreign government bonds	The issuer's country
Others	The domicile of the deceased or the donor

3. Rates

This is not applicable in Japan.

4. Exemptions and reliefs

Exemptions and tax credits

There are several asset or purpose-related exemptions and personal exemptions and tax credits.

Main items of exemptions

- ▶ Donations of properties to certain specified nonprofit organizations or foundations of the Japanese government; a local public organization if the heir makes the donation by the filing due date of the inheritance tax.
- ▶ ¥5 million per statutory heir of life insurance proceeds (as deemed estate property).
- ▶ ¥5 million per statutory heir of retirement allowance (as deemed estate property).
- ▶ Only a certain portion (e.g., 20%) of the acquisition of small-scale business or residential land is subject to inheritance tax. A maximum of 240 sq. meters (330 sq. meters for inheritances on or after 1 January 2015) of land used as a residence and a maximum of 400 sq. meters of land used for a business qualifies for the treatment.

Main items of tax credits

- ▶ As for inheritance tax to be paid by a spouse, the portion of tax due attributed to the spouse pursuant to the statutory share (the greater amount of the spouse's statutory share, or ¥160 million) is creditable against the spouse's inheritance tax due.

Example

Assuming that the heirs are the spouse and a child (in this case, the portion of statutory share is 50% for each); the aggregated taxable estate value is ¥1 billion and the aggregated inheritance tax due is ¥371 million, respectively; and the spouse inherits the properties in the amount of ¥500 million, no inheritance tax is payable by the spouse, since tax due attributed to the spouse is based on the statutory share (i.e., ¥185.5 million; ¥371 million x ¥500 million/¥1,000 million) is creditable. The child will have a tax liability of ¥185.5 million (i.e., ¥371 million x ¥500 million/¥1,000 million).

Assuming that (i) the heirs are the spouse and a child (in this case, the portion of statutory share is 50% for each), (ii) the aggregated taxable estate value is ¥1 billion and the aggregated inheritance tax due is ¥381 million, respectively, and (iii) the spouse inherits the properties in the amount of ¥500 million, no inheritance tax is payable by the spouse, since tax due attributed to the spouse is based on the statutory share (i.e., ¥190.5 million; ¥381 million x ¥500 million/¥1,000 million) and is creditable. The child will have a tax liability of ¥190.5 million (i.e., ¥381 million x ¥500 million/¥1,000 million).

- ## Gift tax exemptions

- ▶ Gifts from a corporation, which is subject to income tax.
- ▶ Gifts to dependents for the necessity of living and education.
- ▶ Gifts of education funds up to ¥15 million to dependents from 1 April 2013 to 31 December 2015, subject to a certain conditions.
- ▶ Gifts to a person engaged in activities for religious, charitable, scientific, educational or social welfare purposes, to be used for such activities.
- ▶ Gifts of money or goods from a specified public interest trust to students or pupils to support their educational costs.
- ▶ Providing a right to receive a subsidy from a local public organization to a handicapped person.
- ▶ Qualified donations to a candidate for a public election campaign, which are duly reported.
- ▶ Obtaining trust beneficiary rights up to ¥60 million by a special handicapped person according to a special support arrangement.
- ▶ One-time exemption of up to ¥20 million of the value of a residential property transferred from a spouse where the period of marriage is 20 years or more and where the donee uses the property for residential purposes.
- ▶ Exemption of up to ¥5 million (per donee) during 2014 for gifts made in cash by parents to their adult children to acquire a residential home.

Gift tax settlement at time of inheritance tax

The rates for the gift tax are generally higher than those for inheritance tax. This is intended to prevent the avoidance of inheritance tax. On the other hand, there is an exception to the general method (i.e., calendar year taxation), a special taxation system for settlement at the time of inheritance, by election, which was introduced in 2003 in order to promote smooth passage of gifts from living parents to their children. When a 65-year-old parent (a 60-year-old parent or grandparent for gifts on or after 1 January 2015) donates properties to an adult child or grandchild, the following can be elected:

- ▶ If the total amount of the donated properties is ¥25 million or less, no gift tax is payable.
- ▶ If the total amount of the donated properties exceeds ¥25 million, a fixed tax rate of 20% is applied to the excess portion to calculate the gift tax due.

At the time of the parent's death, the above properties will be added to the taxable estate assets and will be subject to inheritance tax. The adult child or grandchild who elected the special taxation system will credit the gift tax already paid against their inheritance tax due. If the paid gift tax exceeds the inheritance tax liability, the excess portion will be refunded.

Filing procedures of gift tax

A gift-tax return must be filed and gift tax must be paid by 15 March of the year following the gift.

6. Assessments and valuations

Valuation of the property

Introduction

The taxable base of properties for inheritance-tax and gift-tax purposes is the fair market value at the time of the transfer.

However, the Japanese tax authorities-issued Basic Property Valuation Circular introduced deals with a specific method of valuation for various properties, including land, buildings, tangible and intangible assets, shares in companies, bonds and debentures.

Land

The value of land is generally determined based on the assessed value¹ that the tax authorities annually publishes.

Shares

The value of listed shares and shares traded over the counter is generally calculated based on the share price on the valuation date. However, the lowest of the monthly average prices for the month, including the valuation date and the two preceding months, may be used. The value of unlisted shares is calculated based on the size of the company depending on the number of employees, gross asset and annual sales.

¹Roadside value per square meter of land or rosenka.

8. Grants

There is no general death grant, but if a burier applies, he or she may be able to receive a payment from a Social Security benefit (i.e., health insurance) to cover the cost of the burial.

9. Life insurance

For purposes of the civil law, life insurance proceeds are considered as properties of a recipient. On the other hand, life insurance proceeds are treated as a receipt of the properties on the succession for tax purposes (i.e., subject to inheritance tax).

10. Civil law on succession

10.1 Estate planning

The Japanese Civil Code provides the types of wills. A few high-net-worth individuals (HNWIs) sometimes furnish the will. However, wills are not commonly used in Japan.

10.2 Japanese civil law on succession

Succession

According to the Japanese Civil Code, all rights and obligations of the deceased transfer to heirs automatically and comprehensively at the time of decedent's death. For example, at the time of the deceased's death, all heirs jointly own the estate properties and distributed among each other according to as previously agreed upon. If an heir wants to waive the inheritance or accept the inheritance to the extent of the positive assets, notification to a family court has to be made within three months from the date the heir is informed of his or her inheritance.

According to Article 36 of the Act on General Rules of Application Laws, the law of the deceased's home country (nationality) governs succession.

There are no regional rules on succession law (Civil Code) in Japan.

Statutory heirs (houtei sozokunin)

The Japanese Civil Code prescribes for statutory heirship. The decedent's spouse is always a successor. Other than a spouse, the Civil Code provides three priority levels for successors. The spouse always becomes a successor of equal rank to a successor in any of the priority levels. Anyone in the lower priority groups will not become a successor if a higher priority person survives at the time of the opening of the succession.

An individual who waives an inheritance is not regarded as an heir upon waiver.

The actual allocation of estate properties is made based on agreement among the heirs. The above statutory share is applicable in the case where the agreement is not reached among the heirs.

10.5 Intestacy

A will is a legal document that regulates an individual's estate after death. Wills are not as commonly used in Japan as in other countries. As Japan has ratified the 1964 Convention on the Conflicts of Laws Relating to the Form of Testamentary Dispositions, the validity of a foreign form will may be admitted.

If there is no will, the estate properties will be allocated among the statutory heirs pursuant to their agreement on the allocation. Until such agreement is reached, the estate properties are treated as being jointly owned by the heirs. Income earned from the properties during such period is subject to income tax and allocated among the statutory heirs pursuant to the statutory shares.

10.6 Probate

There is no probate system in Japan. All properties are comprehensively transferred to the heirs at the death.

11. Estate tax treaties

11.1 Unilateral rules

This is not applicable in Japan.

11.2 Double taxation treaties

Japan has concluded only one estate tax treaty with the US as agreed in 1955. This tax treaty is not based on the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development's (OECD) inheritance tax model.
