1.7 Others

1.7.1 Personal income Tax

Cyprus taxes the worldwide income of its residents, while nonresidents are only taxed on certain income derived from sources within Cyprus. Income from employment exercised within Cyprus is considered as Cyprus-source income in this respect.

An individual is considered to be a tax resident of Cyprus if he or she is present in Cyprus for, in aggregate, more than 183 days in any calendar year. For the purpose of calculating the days of residence in Cyprus, the day of departure from Cyprus is considered to be a day out of Cyprus, the day of arrival into Cyprus is considered to be a day in Cyprus, the arrival in Cyprus and departure from Cyprus on the same day is considered to be a day in Cyprus, and the departure from Cyprus and return to Cyprus on the same day is considered to be a day out of Cyprus.

'Personal' Income Tax ('PIT') rate for individuals is levied based on so-called Pay As You Earn system, meaning that the tax rate is changing depending of the amount of the net annual taxable income earned per a tax year. Please refer to the Section 2 below for PIT.

In case of employment an employer is required by law to deduct PIT from employees' salaries.

The Cypriot Income Tax Law allows for deduction of certain expenses such as donations to approved charitable organisations (100%), contributions to approved provident funds, pension funds or medical funds (limited to 1/6th of the taxable income before allowance for deductions in respect of social insurance contributions, life insurance premiums and contributions to approved provident funds, pension funds or medical funds).

1.7.2 Immovable property tax

Tax is imposed on the owner (individuals and legal persons) of immovable property in Cyprus as at 1 January of every year. It is calculated on the market value of immovable property on 1 January 1980 and is payable by 30 September in the year. Please see Section 2 below from Immovable Property tax.

1.7.3 Capital gains tax

Capital Gains Tax ('CGT') is imposed on profits from disposal of immovable property situated in Cyprus, or shares in companies, which have immovable property in Cyprus, and such shares are not listed in any recognized stock market. The tax is imposed on the net profit from disposal at the rate of 20%. The net profit is calculated as the disposal proceeds less the greater of the cost or market value on 1 January 1980 adjusted for inflation. Inflation is calculated using the official Retail Price Index. The index on 1 January 1980 was 35,40 (base year 2005).

- ▶ Gifts to relatives within the third degree of kindred.
- ▶ Gift to a company of which the shareholders are and continue to be members of the disposer's family for 5 years after such gift.
- ▶ Gift by a company of which all the shareholders are members of the same family, to any of its shareholders when the property gifted was also acquired by the company as a gift.
- ▶ Gift by a company, of which all the shareholders are members of the same family, to any of its shareholders when the property gifted was also acquired by the company as a gift. The property must remain in the hands of the donee for a period of at least 3 years.
- ▶ Gift to the Republic or to a local authority for educational or other charitable purposes or to approved charitable institutions.

4. Estate and inheritance tax-filing procedures

Although there is no estate tax, since the 1st of January 2000, the executor/administrator of the estate of the deceased is required by law to submit to the tax authorities a statement of assets and liabilities of the deceased within 6 months from the date of death.

5. Estate and inheritance tax assessments and valuations

Not applicable.

6. Trusts, foundations and private purpose funds

6.1 Trusts

Trusts are a well-established concept in Cyprus. The Trustee Law of 1955 (Cap 193), which mirrors the UK's Trustee Act 1925, is the basic law dealing with the trust relationship. The International Trusts Law is based on the Trustee Law 1955 and governs international trusts.

In 2012, the framework of the International Trust law has been modernized, with the approval by the island's House of Representatives. The new features introduced aim to adapt to the current and future needs of the investors.

6.2 Private collective investment schemes

Private Collective Investment Schemes are regulated in Cyprus by the Central Bank of Cyprus based on the May 1999 Law on International Collective Investment Schemes.

7. Grants

The income arising from educational grants is exempt from income tax. Other grants should generally not be subject to income tax in Cyprus.

8. Life insurance

Lump sum life insurance payouts are exempt from income tax and are not subject to any other taxes in Cyprus.

9. Civil law on succession

As explained above Cyprus does not levy any estates or inheritance taxes. Succession law issues have to be addressed by Cypriot legal counsel.

10. Estate tax treaties

As Cyprus does not levy any estate taxes and it has not entered into any estate tax treaties.

11. Double-taxation treaties

Cyprus has concluded double taxation treaties with over 40 jurisdictions (including EU jurisdictions such as Austria, Belgium, Germany, Greece, Malta and the UK, and jurisdictions outside the EU, such as China, India, the Russian Federation, Ukraine and the US).

More Treaties are under negotiation, or awaiting ratification.

All of the above double taxation treaties provide relief from double taxation.

The Cyprus tax authorities will also grant unilateral relief from Cyprus tax on income received from a foreign country with which Cyprus has no double taxation treaty. This relief applies up to the amount of tax paid in the foreign country, and is granted by exemption or credit.
